Wayne R. Luck, Esq.
www.thrivent.com

Attorney Luck works directly with internal clients at Thrivent Financial for Lutherans and serves as legal consultant to Thrivent's Member Dispute Resolution Program (MDRP). The MDRP is a program which provides Thrivent members with a means to resolve disputes through mediation and arbitration. Attorney Luck also manages litigation brought against Thrivent through the court system as well as administrative agencies such as the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (formerly National Association of Securities Dealers - NASD).

Attorney Luck has extensive trial and case management experience in the areas of personal injury, commercial and workers compensation litigation. He also has significant experience preparing and presenting legal training, both in-house and through various associations. While at Liberty Mutual, he was part of Liberty Mutual's faculty for the various NITA programs.

Attorney Luck is also active in school and church activities. He has served on the strategic planning committee for the past eight years for the Hortonville School District. He has also served on the facilities planning committee, gifted and talented program and has helped with referendums for construction of additional classroom space for the Hortonville School District. Attorney Luck has been congregation president at his church and is a member of church council. He has also served on business, education and stewardship committees.

Peter Farb, Esq.
Law Offices of Thomas P. Stilp

Attorney Farb is a trial attorney working for Liberty Mutual Insurance Company through the Law Offices of Thomas P. Stilp in Appleton, Wisconsin. He was admitted to practice in 1983 and joined Liberty Mutual in 2001. Since 1998 Attorney Farb has been Board Certified as a Civil Trial Lawyer by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. He practices in all areas of insurance defense, including workers' compensation, auto liability, civil rights claims, school, property and general liability cases, insurance coverage disputes and fire claims.

Attorney Farb practices in Wisconsin State Courts, the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin, and the United States 7th Circuit Court of Appeals.

Before joining Liberty Mutual, Attorney Farb practiced in private firms in Wisconsin for over fifteen years. In addition to his current areas of practice, he has significant experience handling subrogation, SIU, construction and restaurant matters. Attorney Farb has written and presented various continuing legal education articles on topics related to civil litigation, governmental liability and workers' compensation.

Attorney Farb received his Bachelor of Science in Political Science, with High Honors, from Grand Valley State University in 1980, and received his Juris Doctor Degree from the University of Notre Dame in 1983.

Andrew J. Maier, Esq.

Outagamie County District Attorney's Office

Attorney Maier prosecutes criminal offenses on behalf of the State of Wisconsin. The majority of his cases are sexual assaults, serious domestic violence cases, and crimes against children. Attorney Maier is also assigned to prosecute computer-based crimes such as Possession of Child Pornography and on-line Child Enticement cases. Prior to coming to Outagamie County in September of 2007, Attorney Maier worked as an Assistant District Attorney in the Milwaukee County District Attorney's Office for over six years. He worked in the Domestic Violence Unit, Termination of Parental Rights Unit, and Milwaukee Metropolitan Drug Enforcement Group, in addition to handling misdemeanor and traffic offenses. Attorney Maier was nominated for Wisconsin Prosecutor of the Year in 2006 for work in MMDEG. He has addressed school and community groups on police-citizen relations, and has trained law enforcement on domestic violence law, search and seizure, and computer crimes.

John D. Claypool

Attorney Claypool concentrates his practice in the area of personal injury litigation. He is board certified by the National Board of Trial Advocates. Attorney Claypool has been named a Super Lawyer by a prominent statewide magazine, placing him in the top 5% of all attorneys in Wisconsin.

As a specialist in personal injury litigation, Attorney Claypool is frequently asked to serve as a mediator and arbitrator in personal injury cases. He has tried more than 50 cases before juries and has settled cases in excess of $1 million. Attorney Claypool was rated by an international service as having high to very high legal ability and very high ethical standards as established by confidential opinions of members of the Bar in Northeast Wisconsin. He is on the Board of Directors for the Wisconsin Academy of Trial Lawyers, and he is currently serving as vice president for the Outagamie County Bar Association.
