

Eckstein Hall
Marquette University Law School

For the first time in 86 years, Marquette University Law School will have a new home. This dramatic venue, Ray and Kay Eckstein Hall, will benefit not only the Marquette legal community, but the greater Milwaukee region and beyond.

Eckstein Library—the Library Without Borders—will be located on all four levels of Eckstein Hall and will provide ease of access to an ideal resource combination:

- A strong print-based collection.
- Pervasive and superb technology.
- Proactive professional support services.

Eckstein Hall opens in August 2010. Be among the first to visit and utilize this amazing facility.

Thank you to our sponsors:

The Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin (LLAW) is a non-profit organization established for educational, informational and social purposes. Its objectives are to promote librarianship; develop the usefulness of libraries and the skill of their users; cultivate the profession of law librarianship; foster a spirit of cooperation among members; and provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and resources on a state-wide level.

Why you should attend

The LLAW Educational Institute day-long program will be a dual-track event that will have sessions appropriate for all types of librarians.

This is a great opportunity to discuss current issues affecting law librarianship and legal research and to discover how to prepare for what the future holds.

Featured Keynote Speaker

LLAW is very pleased to have Professor Robert C. Berring, Walter Perry Johnson Professor of Law, University of California, Berkeley, as the keynote speaker.

Professor Berring will address the changing landscape of the legal research industry. Has the time of change for legal research and research in general finally arrived?
